

I strongly oppose the current action by the CBA in that they are trying to "reform" the telephone privacy act. I have been so pleased by the lack of annoying phonecalls, that thinking about receiving them again gives me a headache. Please DO NOT allow this to happen!